

Where Were You When I Needed You

Rob Grill

(Sloan/Barri)
don't bother crying don't bother calling it's all over now there's no use in stalling the love I once felt I don't feel anymore for you this time I'll even open the door for you you walked out when I was down welll now I'm well off and look, look whose comin' round where were you when I needed you where were you when I wanted you where were you when I need you where you're looking good, it's hard to fight it but no use explain' I've already decided that goin' with you is worse than without you I won't spend a lifetime worryin' about you when things got bad you disappeared

but I'm back on my feet and look, look whose standin' there where were you when I neeed you
you were so young and you were so wild I knew you were nobody's innocent child that first day I saw you you really got to me I thought I could change you what could you do to me when times got rought ah, you would't wait well now you're trippin' back and babe, babe it's too late

where (etc.)
