Watchin' You

Hardship Post

(written by Gene Simmons), originally performed by KISSLivin' as you do and I'm watchin' you
And you don't really know a-just what to doYou don't really know
You don't really know
What to doAnd I'm standin' here not quite aware
And I'm tryin' baby, tryin' not to stareOoh, 'cause everybody else is here
Yes, everybody else is here
Everybody else is here
Watchin' youOoh, 'cause everybody else is here
Yes, everybody else is here
Everybody else is here
Watchin' us
