

Blackbird

Fat Freddy's Drop

Where there was one before,
now there are many,
and as the days go by,
I see them multiply.

I can't eat, I can't sleep, because I know they'll be watching me. Descending on the beast, these shadows keep folding down,
for me.

MmmmmThere's a blackbird,
in my garden,

here's a blackbi

oh ohoh ohoh ohohohoho. Where there was one before, mmm
now there are many,
What are they waiting for,
food I have not to need.
I can't eat, I can't sleep,
because I know they'll be watching me.

Yellow eyes that see right through,
I don't know what I'm supposed to do,
For these blackbirds,
