

You Are My Home (feat. Philip Janz)

Brian Doerksen

Oh, yeah, yeahI've looked for love in so many places
Trying to find out where I belong
Wandering through this barren land of longing
Looking for the place called home, a place called homeYou said,? Come to me all you who are so weary
And you will find true rest for your souls?
Lord, let these words of life speak into my heart
Anywhere I am I can be homeYou are my home, You're my true home
I am safe inside the shelter of Your love
You are my home, You're my true home
I am free to be a child once again
Oh, I'm free in YouYou are my one true destination
The place I eternally belong
You made me from the earth and then You breathed into me life
Redeemed me from my sin and brought me homeYou are my home, You're my true home
I am safe inside the shelter of Your love
You are my home, You're my true home
I am free to be a child once againMy heart is restless, till it rests in You
My heart is restless, till it rests in You
Until I dwell in You
Until I find my home in YouUntil I find my home in You, yeah
I belong to You
You are my home, true home
You are my home, You are my shelter
You are my home, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
You are my home, You are my shelter
You are my homeBring me home
