Less and Less

Charlie Louvin

I got up and made my mornin' cup of coffee
Fooled around the house an hour or more I guess
I did all this before I even had one thought of you
More and more I think about you less and less
I'm surprised but after all it's been a while now
Since I lost your love and all my happiness
But look as though I just might maybe learn to smile again
More and more I think about you less and less
I wouldn't be surprised if any day these teardrops I've been crying
All these heartaches you caused me begin to wither and then dying
Just now someone ask me if I'm hearing from you and I felt a lot like cryin' I confess
But I didn't cry I guess the worst is over now
More and more I think about you less and less
More and more I think about you less and less
