Don't Say No

Dreamweavers

I used to say just follow your heart But my heart always led me in circles and i used to say just follow your dreams but my dreams always led me to murder so now i don't say nothing at all i just bow my head to the battle a thousand miles above our heads they are weaving giant currents around the sun if you're brave enough you'll just let it happen if youre brave enough you'll just succumb Dont say no to it

You cant say no to it just throw yourself in just give yourself in to the pattern
they are bleeding mighty currents uopn the day
if youre brave enough you'll just let it happen if youre brave enough you'll give yourself away Dont say no to it!
You cant say no to it!
