

Where Did He Go?

The Briefs

In an alleyway up state in a riverbed no one knows his fate at the resturant in the parking lot he would never return they would never be caughtthey looked every place lost without a tracewhere did he go? he's very deep in a hole where did he go to? the truth will never be toldat the stadium downtown think it could've been him selling peanuts as a clown
they would never be caughtthey looked all about still we go withoutwhere did he go? he's very deep in a hole where did he go to? the truth will never be toldLet's Gothey looked every place lost without a tracewhere did he go? he's very deep in a hole where did he go to? the truth will never be told where did he go?
