

Drown In You

Daughtry

There's a place where you can light the fire and watch it burn

Lay it down and lose it all

It's taking me so far beyond the point and no return

Gave all that I had when hope was gone, hope was gone

Is this real or is it just another crazy dream

That someday soon will fade away

Feels just like I'm under water and can barely breathe

Dying in the bed that I have madeI don't wanna drown in you

I'm sinking and I'm torn in two

So when you see me come up for air

Don't try to hold me down

Just save me now

Don't let me drown in youThis city pulls me in closer than I've ever been

There aint' no way I can escape

Without a doubt you know that I would tread the deepest end

A thousand years forever and a day.But I don't wanna drown in you

I'm sinking and I'm torn in two

So when you see me come up for air

Don't try to hold me down

Just save me now

Don't let me drown in youDid I bring this on myself

Can I get out alive

Yeah, I've given you the best of me

Now you want the rest of me

What's it gonna take to survive yeahThere's a place where you can light the fire and watch it burnI don't wanna drown in you

I'm sinking and I'm torn in two

So when you see me come up for air

Don't try to hold me down

Just save me now

Don't let me drown in youDon't let me drown in you

Drown in you

Just save me now

Don't let me drown in you

Drown in you
