Take Me Away

Seether

As beautiful as fire against the evening sky
You fuel the lost desire, I no longer wanna die
Take me by the hand and see beyond the lie
Strip away the fences leaving me needing
Leaving me highI know youre so solo but I cantTake me away, take me away, take me away
I dont wanna lose control
Take me away, take me away, take me away
I dont wanna lose it allRelieved of all the pain, you let me see again
Delivered from my shame now and Im lost for what to say
Cleansed and pure and weak, I suffer when I dream
I need to find a purpose, need to feel you needing meI know youre so solo I cantTake me away, take me away, take me away
I don't wanna lose control
Take me away, take me away, take me away
I don't wanna lose it allPure and weak, I suffer when I dream
Cleansed of me I suffer when I dreamI want you to stay, you take the pain away
Want you to stay, I need you here to keep me sane
I want you to stay, you take the pain away
Want you to stay, I need you here to keep me saneTake me away, take me away, take me away
I don't wanna lose control
Take me away, take me away, take me away
I don't wanna lose it allI want you to stay, you take the pain away
Want you to stay, I need you here to keep me sane
I want you to stay, you take the pain away
Want you to stay, I need you here to keep me sane
