A Kick In the Teeth

Fischerspooner

You know what a
Let me not do this right nowSawing, with my jaw tooth down
Guarded, down upside frownIm, Im looking for a pill
Something to ease my will
A kick in the teeth
You, you may not realize
When its done or whyBut it may be the best thing
It may be the best thing
Oh and it may be the best thingPulsing, with a familiar pain
A comfort, or from this disdain, grind awayIm, Im looking for a thrill
Something to ease my will
You, you may not realize
When its done or whyIm, Im looking for a thrill
Something to ease my will
You, you may not realize
When it does or whyBut it may be the best thing
It may be the best thing
Oh and it may be the best thing
And it may be the best thing
And may be the best thingOh and it may be the best thing
Oh and it may be the best thing
Oh and it may be the best thing
