

Cherry Bomb

Ash

Teenage queen, a sweet gamine
Immortal youth, a libertine
Is she real or just a dream?
My heart beats fast like Benzedrine Every time that she walks by
Sends shivers down my spine
Makes me wanna die She is out there on her own
Perfection in her chromosomes
She walked by, I need to know
Her blood red lips as soft as snow Every time that she walks by
Sends shivers down my spine
Makes me wanna die, oh yeah She's a cherry bomb
She's a bullet in my head
Pull the trigger and I'm dead
Oh oh oh oh, oh yeah When she walks across the floor
Electric shock and my heart is raw
Is she real or just a dream?
My heart beats fast like Benzedrine Every time that she walks by
Sends shivers down my spine
Makes me wanna die, oh yeah She's a cherry bomb
She's a bullet in my head
Pull the trigger and I'm dead
Oh oh oh oh, oh yeah She's a cherry bomb
She's a bullet in my head
Pull the trigger and I'm She's a cherry bomb
Dream about her in my bed
Pull the trigger and I'm dead
Oh oh oh oh, oh yeah
Oh oh oh oh, oh yeah
Oh oh oh oh, oh yeah
