

Just Be True

David Porter

We're kids no more baby, we belong you and me together
I vowed never to do you wrong, and shall always keep you happy, (together)Now dear the things that I need are very few

But there is one thing, that I demand of you
Just be true, to me, just be trueDon't be offended from the things I've said
For I know it will never be that bad
But my dear, I couldn't help but let 'cha know
That if you should leave me, it would hurt me sonah nah nah nah
I've given you all of me, and and plan to give even more, baby
My true love and a sweet affection, and there's even more in store, baby
