Some of the basic laws of metaphysics understand itself
Understanding the relationship with the most higher in the uni
Understanding laws of cause and effect
Now the average person only recognizes the effect
Understand the cause, it endeavor helps you to understand the effect
Most of the time people get caught up in the fake without realizing and taking time and see why
That situation happens when we don't knowLooking at the world through my bonsai
Picturing the time as it flies by Going at the speed of light, I'm leaving out your eye sight
I'm an invisible energy, feel the pure light
I can manifest anything tangible that I like
All I gotta do is visualize in they mind like
And all I see is love and it shines bright
It illuminates everything in my eyesight
No more segregation, no more hesitation
Living every single moment in my meditation
While I'm walking every single step is an elevation
While I'm talking every single breath since we levitatin
I couldn't do it before because I didn't have the patience
But the higher self inside of me was waiting there patiently
For me to open my heart so my love wouldn't be wasted
The true essence is so close you could taste it
That's the bear naked truth and most people can't take it
Can I just get my time?
My mind respects ya
My passion was deep down on my affection
Throw something bonus,
I'm destined for greatness yeaI can move mountains, mind over matter, ball process
Deeper than Atlantic, so enchanted like shinin bright from the solar plexus
'Cause enough energy, ya's my reflection
Love is my selection, protection
Floatin on a higher level
My brain drop gems and hold em like a bezel
Meditate over the madness
Infiltrate sadness to gladness
Pessimist sticks left stagnant
Only happiness in my dragning
My concept since I was a fragment
Somewhere up in the striders

My spirit flies free through the galaxy matter
Can I just get my time?
My mind respects ya
My passion was deep down on my affection
Throw something bonus,
I'm destined for greatness yeaWutchu doin? Wutchu doin now?
How you feelin now? Just for tell me how it's going down
Tell me how you feelin now? Wutchu doin now?
Won't you tell me how it's going down?Put yourself in my predicament
To here lies from seeing all you ones with the imfanents
Lies a truth baptized, it's intimate now
It's penetrate your skin why?
'Cause the son of men
No one is innocent and I defend ours of the tinaments
City how I rise like the illy rent
Photo polish that we all must fall
They be teaching false beliefs like it ain't no tomorrow
Even if we gonna seize man, we all live on
Read through my lines and poems to deceize this form
Relationships staking bill, they get ripped and torn
And we all will be born just to go beyond, fuck it
That's why you always see me star gazin
Tryna reach higher self with a higher heights than meditation
Took a lot of will and lot of patience
A lot of skill, a lot of common skill
But it's real just like the fakeness
And you could take it how you take it
Now while you contemplate to me and in most eyes having conversations loveThe next thing I wish you couldn't go to is power of thought
Is you think positive things your will be full of positivity
If you think negative things your world will be full of negativity
It sounds simple and you try to apply these things
And always stay conscious of these things
It's not...
Those some basic laws of metaphysics
