Empire

Superheist

A mask, a cut above
An image of a raging fire
Burning in my mind
(You can't take from me)And once you believe the tales they told
Once you believe in what they sold
Will it bring you to your knees?
Will it change you? The memory will fade
That certainty it gave to meFactions, reactions
To me there's one solution
It's time to rearrange our ways
For you all to create my destruction
We are oneA task, a sky above
The remnants of a lost empire
An effigy, a sign
(You can't take from me)And once you believe the tales they told
Once you believe in what they sold
Will it bring you to your knees?
Will it change you? The memory will fade
That certainty it gave to meFactions, reactions
To me there's one solution
Its time to rearrange our ways
For you all to create my destruction
We are oneThe memory will fade
The memory will fade
That certainty it gave to meFactions, reactions
To me there's one solution
Its time to rearrange our waysThe memory will fade
That certainty it gaveFactions, reactions
To me there's one solution
Its time to rearrange our ways
For you all to create my destructionWe are one
(You can't take from me)
The memory will fade
The memory will fade
That certainty it gave
