

Tremors

S O H N

Vibrations of tremors that shook long ago

Tear holes in the fabric of all that we know(Pre-Chorus 1)

Can't survive with the secrets we have

All that we have is a lie

Hold the line

Til the thread comes undone

If you're thinking of letting me go then it's time that you do(Chorus)

If you're thinking of letting me go then it's time that you do

If you're thinking of letting me go...(Verse)

Flood lines we etched when we merged into one

Rewind and scroll on before they were done(Pre-Chorus 2)

Can't survive with the secrets we share

If all that we share is a lie

Hold the line

Let the thread come undone

If you're thinking of letting me go then it's time that you do(Chorus)

If you're thinking of letting me go then it's time that you do

If you're thinking of letting me go...

If you're thinking of letting me go then it's time that you do (x4)Vibrations of tremors that shook long ago (x4)

That shook long ago...
