

The Rooster

Benny Gallagher

Hold up, yeah
Ooh, ooh! Somebody done told you wrong
Who you're gonna off like that
Hot, too hot, too hot, too motherfuckin' hot
Like motherfuckin' tool's
Okay, I start out all alone
'Cause my baby mama left me, now there's nobody at home
Beginning to feel like Mrs. Jackson done got cloned
Well it's some real shit and I'm lving it through this song
A moving vehicle took my family
As I slept out on the sofa in the boom boom room
I woke up very upset, I throw the covers back
And peek out through the draperies
My daughter, my baby
My baby mama all escaping me
Like a candle in the wind
She was my friend
Like princess died before she died
Therefore we tried and tried again
But in the end you pay attention to the pluses
But the minuses behind make it seem like you can't win
Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
Round two, a single parent, what is big to do?
Throw a party? Not hardly! I'm trying to stay up outta that womb
Or that P U S S uss! I said, "Uss"
Luther Vandross couldn't make a home
Out of this house that we smooshed
Smashed, pushed to the limit! Smash and turned it timid
Hell everyone was suffering, the house was feeling wicked
The cat got sold, the dog got old, the food got cold
Both of our tempers were on swolle
For the most part you fuss, fight, fart
You build it up to break it down and now take it from the start
Repeatedly leading a path that only ends in a flash
Of two stubborn minds, grown folks blind to the sign
Throw your neck out! Throw your back out

Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
 Throw your back out
 K O, knocked out by technicality
 The love has kissed the canvas
 Now the whole family gets mad at me
My daughter don't want me at her P T A meetings
 And then my son he can't talk
 When I change him he's peeing
I think he's pissed, I can't dismiss the matter of the fact
 Because he saw me and you argue
 Now the energy is coming back
Set an example, a positive pattern, keep life on track
 But I'm married to the music
 And committed to the wax
Tapes and CDs, baby please, you make me wanna scream
You're on my team starting first string so why are we arguing?
Tapes, CDs, baby please, you make me wanna scream
You're on my team starting first string so why are we arguing?
 Throw your fuckin' neck out! Throw your back out
 Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
 Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
 Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
 Throw your back out!
Tapes, CDs, baby please, you make me wanna scream
You're on my team starting first string so why are we arguing?
Wax tapes, CDs, baby please, you make me wanna scream
You're on my team starting first string so why are we arguing?
 Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
 Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
 Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
 Throw your neck out! Throw your back out
