

Don't Call Me Baby

Geri Halliwell

Do you think about me
Like I think about you?
As these nights grow colderDo you think about us
All the love that was lost?
Looking back as we grow olderWould you cry if I die?
Either way nothing changes
And just rememberDon't call me baby, baby
Just because you can
Don't call me lady, boy
You ain't that kind of manDon't call me sugar, honey
You've never done before
It's just too little, too late
This baby's at the doorDo you wish that you cared?
Maybe you were too scared
To show me what you're feelingDid you run out of time
With me on your mind?
Didn't we have no meaning?Would you bleed if I leave?
Either way nothing changes
And just rememberDon't call me baby, baby
Just because you can
Don't call me lady, boy
You ain't that kind of manDon't call me sugar, honey
You've never done before
It's just too little, too late
This baby's at the doorCome on, come on
Come on, come on, come on
Don't you cry no moreCome on, come on
Come on, come on, come on
Get up off the floorDon't call me baby, baby
Just because you can
Don't call me lady, boy
You ain't that kind of manDon't call me sugar, honey
You've never done before
It's just too little, too late
This baby's at the doorDon't call me baby, baby
(Don't call me baby)
Just because you canDon't call me lady, boy
(Don't call me lady)
You ain't that kind of manDon't call me sugar, honey

(Don't call me sugar)
You've never done before
It's just too little, too late
This baby's at the doorDon't call me baby, baby
(Don't call me baby)
Just because you canDon't call me lady, boy
(Don't call me lady)
You ain't that kind of manDon't call me sugar, honey
(Don't call me sugar)
You've never done before
It's just too little, too late
This baby's at the door
