Don't Call Me Baby

Geri Halliwell

Do you think about me

Like I think about you?

As these nights grow colderDo you think about us

All the love that was lost?

Looking back as we grow olderWould you cry if I die?

Either way nothing changes

And just rememberDon't call me baby, baby

Just because you can

Don't call me lady, boy

You ain't that kind of manDon't call me sugar, honey

You've never done before

It's just too little, too late

This baby's at the doorDo you wish that you cared?

Maybe you were too scared

To show me what you're feelingDid you run out of time

With me on your mind?

Didn't we have no meaning? Would you bleed if I leave?

Either way nothing changes

And just rememberDon't call me baby, baby

Just because you can

Don't call me lady, boy

You ain't that kind of manDon't call me sugar, honey

You've never done before

It's just too little, too late

This baby's at the doorCome on, come on

Come on, come on, come on

Don't you cry no moreCome on, come on

Come on, come on, come on

Get up off the floorDon't call me baby, baby

Just because you can

Don't call me lady, boy

You ain't that kind of manDon't call me sugar, honey

You've never done before

It's just too little, too late

This baby's at the doorDon't call me baby, baby

(Don't call me baby)

Just because you canDon't call me lady, boy

(Don't call me lady)

You ain't that kind of manDon't call me sugar, honey

(Don't call me sugar)
You've never done before
It's just too little, too late
This baby's at the doorDon't call me baby, baby
(Don't call me baby)
Just because you canDon't call me lady, boy
(Don't call me lady)
You ain't that kind of manDon't call me sugar, honey
(Don't call me sugar)
You've never done before
It's just too little, too late
This baby's at the door
