

Slavery

Mongol

I've given up everything 'till it seems so fucking wrong
I've always been tied to you, now the bond is fucking gone
 You're just a victim
 Of your own decisions
 And your desperation
Is like watching an accident I reject the way you need
 To hurt yourself to get to me
 I will break away from you
My regret is knowing you You've thrown away everything and you hope I sympathize
 It's kind of like slavery to a world of fucking lies
 You're not the victim
 Of your own addictions
 And your desperation
Now you won't get my sympathy This feels like slavery
 This ends it all
 This feels like slavery
 This ends it all
