

You're My Star

Stereophonics

You fly, with angels' wings
You got my, blood in your veins
And your eyes, see everything
And they shine, like diamond rings

You're my Sunday
You make my Monday, come alive
Just like Tuesday, you're a new day,
That wakes me up
Wednesday's raining
Thursday's yearning,
For Friday nights
Then it all ends at the weekend, you're my star

At times, I cave right in
But this fight we have to win
And your songs you love to sing
May your dreams, forever live

You're my Sunday
You make my Monday, come alive
Just like Tuesday, you're a new day,
That wakes me up
Wednesday's raining
Thursday's yearning,
For Friday nights
Then it all ends at the weekend, you're my star

You're my star
Yes you are

It's a thrill to see your imagination
Just watching you is an education
What's in your mind is my fascination
It blows my mind and sets my heart racing

You're my Sunday
You make my Monday, come alive
Just like Tuesday, you're a new day,
That Wakes me up

Wednesday's raining
Thursday's yearning,
For Friday nights
Then it all ends at the weekend, you're my star
