

Mary Jane

Del Shannon

A new girl moved in town today,
All you guys better keep away,
Don't let her be the one you dream of,
Because she's got that poison love You heard me say,
Keep away,
From Mary Jane Yeah,
She runs around from town to town,
I've never seen a guy tame her down,
She'll cause you aches and she'll cause you pain,
Her poison love will drive you insane You heard me say,
Keep away,
From Mary Jane Oh let me tell you now,
She'll treat you worse than a runaround sue,
There ain't no telling what she will do to you,
If she gives you that come on sign,
You better move on down the line,
I can tell you she sure is fine,
But she walks such a crooked line,
She'll cause you aches and she'll cause you pain
Her poison love will drive you insane, You heard me say,
Keep away,
From Mary Jane Oh play it for me now! I can tell you she sure is fine,
But she walks such a crooked line,
She'll cause you aches and she'll cause you pain
Her poison love will drive you insane, You heard me say,
Keep away,
From Mary Jane Oh yeah,
Watch out for that crooked line now,
Yeah,
She'll get you!
