

Tug-O-War

Chevelle

Feed the cut and get in line
To live and burn is tug-o-war Raped Go back and forth until it's learned
To suffer now or nothing's gained
Then wake within a freezing sweat
Push and pull, collecting doubt Starting seeds Lost inspiration, panic on the rise
A severed attempt ignored Raped The reason never outweighs the truth
So backing up and lean against
The liars club cometh shame
Wasting farther collecting doubt Starting seeds Lost inspiration, panic on the rise
A severed attempt ignored So hand it off, don't care enough
'Cause ignorance, is in blissful reach Lost inspiration, panic on the rise
A severed attempt ignored Lost inspiration, never played the game
A severed attempt ignored Feed, the last head trip
