

Wearing a Lampshade

Born Against

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

You certainly aren't the victim shocked as you may seem the mna stands up for chivalry when it's fuck you on the street I can't say how many times it needs to be told no I don't wear them no I don't eat them that hypocrite shit won't go won't go you certainly aren't the beauty that makes the steel jaws bleed and there's no gate at the front of these camps saying work will set you free I'm tired on being the threat in a world of murderers shit on just for giving a shit about a bunch of rats wearing a lampshade 40 times over 40 times the man gives what she needs mister beautifier, mister defender just won't listen when he's told the lampshades in the fatherland are only 50 years old.
