

Blue Ghosts

Riverboat Gamblers

I'm still fighting wars
With people who aren't here anymore
Still trying to ignore
I got no lives left, I'll never get high score
Still trying to forget
A mother and a father that I never met
What a stupid thing to regret
I'm too close, it might not exist And I try
To win a game that has no end
And these dots never fill me up Headaches
From running into walls
Chasing little blue ghosts
Still chasing little blue ghosts Heartaches
From missing out on it all
Don't want it at all
Still chasing little blue ghosts
Time to leave it alone Phantoms in my brain
Am I chasing them or are they chasing me?
Thoughts I don't wanna face
I can hit reset but I can't erase
Still stuck in a maze
Thought they were dead but they're here to stay
Little lies blow away
Little lies blow away And I try
To win a game that has no end
And these dots never fill me up Headaches
From running into walls
Chasing little blue ghosts
Still chasing little blue ghosts Heartaches
From missing out on it all
Don't want it at all
Still chasing little blue ghosts
Time to leave it alone Headaches
From running into walls
Heartaches
From missing out on it all
Don't want it at all
Still chasing little blue ghosts Headaches
Running into walls

Chasing little blue ghosts
Still chasing little blue ghosts
Time to leave it alone Leave them alone
Leave them alone
Leave them alone
Leave them alone
