You'll Never Know

Lawson

You'll never touch my face
We'll never play these games
We'll never be the same
I think about that night
You never said goodbye
You only walked away.It's like my heart stopped beating, when you walked away
And all that I believed in, is going to waste.You'll never know that I loved
You'll never know that i trusted you in every way
You'll never know that i missed
You'll never know that i think about you every day.I never called you up because it hurt too much
Oh i regret that day I never dared to ask if you would take me back
Scared of what you'd say.'Cause my heart stopped beating, when you walked away
And all that I believed in, is going to waste.You'll never know that I loved
You'll never know that i trusted you in every way
You'll never know that i missed
You'll never know that i think about you every day.You'll never know these tears I've cried
That I'm sleeping on your side
And are you thinking of me?
I don't
I don't know.You'll never know I'm up all night
You're still the best thing in my life
And if you ever come back
I'll never
Ill never let go.You'll never know that I loved
You'll never know that i trusted you in every way
You'll never know that i missed
You'll never know that i think about you every day.You'll never know these tears I've cried
That I'm sleeping on your side
And are you thinking of me?
I don't
I don't know.You'll never know I'm up all night
You're still the best thing in my life
And if you ever come back
I'll never
Ill never let go.
