Greed

Stealing Sheep

The sun is tough
The ground is dry
Your blood is thick
Your skin in worn
You look behind
Your home has gone
What is this pilgrimage you're on?
Greed
You're everything I want but not what I needThe sun is tough
The ground is dry
Your blood is thick
Your skin in worn
You look behind
Your home has gone
What is this pilgrimage you're on?
Greed
You're everything I want but not what I needAre you hungry for denial?
Or are you full of fear inside?
Do you seek the truth, or live the lie?
When will you feel satisfied?
Greed
You're everything I want but not what I needSometimes the truth is hard to find
But it's always there
Maybe disguisedSometimes the truth is hard to find
But it's always there
Maybe disguisedAre you hungry for denial?
Or are you full of fear inside?
Do you seek the truth, or live the lie?
When will you feel satisfied?
Greed
You're everything I want but not what I needAre you hungry for denial?
Or are you full of fear inside?
Do you seek the truth, or live the lie?
When will you feel satisfied?
Greed
You're everything I want but not what I needSometimes the truth is hard to find
But it's always there
Maybe disguisedSometimes the truth is hard to find
But it's always there

Maybe disguised
