The Hunted

Connie Lim

We are the hunted
We are the dreamers
One of the crowd
Together were louderYes it may be true
If youre only you
You could be targeted for all the bold things you doCuz once we say
What we really mean
We are inconvenient
To the current sceneWe are the hunted
We are the dreamers
One of the crowd
Together were louderUnderneath the sidewalk
Live outcasts and outlaws
Doin their time underground
Tryin not to be found
But time has made her move
No longer can they prove
That what we do
Aint good for the city viewSo out we come the unwanted ones
Search for the sun it shines
For everyone
We must say what we like,
We must sing through the night
Let them know until daylightWe are the hunted
We are the dreamers
One of the crowd
Together were louderWe must say what we like
We must sing through the night
Let them know until daylight
