

Counterfeit

War Rocket Ajax

How are you doing?
How have you been?
Yeah it's good seeing you again.
Why did I leave your company?
I thought that it was plain to see.
You know it's been so long.
I hope this doesn't come out all wrong.
But I had to separate myself.
From those who put the truth on a shelf. I don't want no counterfeit.
Don't wanna see you throw a fit.
I don't want no counterfeit. I hope you don't feel you've been attacked.
Or that you've been stuck in the back.
It's just that I can't turn my head.
You're good intentions left me for dead. "You gotta fake it 'till you make it."
