Sweet Conversations

Jeff Rasmussen

Verse 1
I've been doing some thinking
About you and I
It's been a while since I seen you
And I ask myself why
How did it get so distorted
For you not to want me no more
Well I can't find the answers
Since you walked out that door

Chorus
Could it be I was selfish
Could it be I was blind
For me not to notice
How you were hurting inside
Sweet conversations
And how it used to be
All those shadows now
locked in my memories

Verse 2
Flowers, candies, and letters
Don't mean a thing
With a stone for a heart
How could my love be let in
Why can't you forgive me
And just start all over again
Well I'll wait for a lifetime
For our love to begin

Chorus
Could it be I was selfish
Could it be I was blind
For me not to notice
How you were hurting inside
Sweet conversations
And how it used to be
All those shadows now

locked in my memories

They're just shadows now
locked in my memories
