Hero's Return

Dragony

In a time of fear and confusion
Silence charging the air
The sunlight is gone, darkness lives on
In the heart of the dragon's lairLost in a world of illusions
No trace of the missing ore
Stealing our souls, we're out of control
Knocking at death's doorAll our beliefs fading into ashes
Heed the words that we pray
For a hero's return our hearts still yearn
Rise and conquer, let the infidels burnNow we charge, the battle is raging
Blood runs everywhere
Our anger is fierce, avenging the years
No time for final prayerBehold, the might of the hammer
Elliptical bolts of fire
There's nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
You're down to the wire
Somewhere out there lies a new tomorrow
For me and those who believeFor a hero's return our hearts still yearn
Rise and conquer, let the infidels burn
(For a hero's return our hearts still yearn)
(Rise and conquer, let the infidels burn)Ooh ooh ooh ooh
Now, I've returned from a place far beyond
(Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh)
My mission I set, let it be done
(Aah)
We still believe in a brighter future
The dreams are ours to fulfill(For a hero's return)
Our hearts still yearn
Rise and conquer, let the infidels burn
(For a hero's return our hearts still yearn)
(Rise and conquer, let the infidels burn)
