

Roadkill

Eyes to Space

The feel of my arm around your waist
The pale blue nightdress that you wore oh oh
 Your hair in braids, your sailor top
The things that I don't see anymore no no
 You lost your suitcase in my hotel room
 A subway token from your mall
The sun reflecting off the water on your face
 And the way you drove your car
 All these things I can't forget
 Though I don't see you anymore
 Drove to the airport thru' a traffic jam
 A deer lay dyin' in the road
Maybe I should have seen it as some kind of sign
 Except I don't believe in them no more no no
 But I believe these things, I can't forget
 I don't see you anymore
 Ya, I believe these things, I can't forget
 'Cos I see them, though I don't see you anymore
