Winning Is for Losers

The Soviettes

Did you know when you woke up today that you were gonna sign your life away?
And you don't even believe in the NRA, now your body might just stay:
Now that he's in power its soon your finest hour
So put on those bars and be proud of your stars!
So march and watch them all bleed and make sure they believe we're all that they need!
Do you believe in why you're there?
Do you think we're being fair?
They sold you on a thought
Believe you were bought
Now push those bullets
Push "our" thoughts
