

Prodigal Blues

Billy Idol

Ridin' my life, like a run-a-way train
Moving from one track to that
Howlin', cryin', screamin' at the moon
Only my voice came back
Only the echo came back When I was a boy
Daddy told me, grow tall
Yes and Billy don't crawl
Taught me how to ride
Set me out on my own and I never came back And yes, I'd do it again
Oh, wouldn't you
Yeah, I'd do it again
A-huh, oh yeah
Do it again, baby
Wouldn't you? Remember when I lied
Just when you needed me
Now I sit alone and cry
'Cos now I believe in mercy Remember when I lied
Just when you needed me, baby
I believe in mercy Ridin', walkin', lookin' so cool
Guess I crossed over the borderline
Treated like a dunce
Who just can't read
Did I fool me too? And yes, I'd do it again
Oh, wouldn't you?
Yes, I'd do it again
Aha yeah, I'd do it again
Baby, wouldn't you? Remember when I lied
Just when you needed me
Now I sit alone and cry
'Cos now I believe in mercy Remember when I lied
Now that you needed me
Yes, I believe in mercy I said, "Come here"
Look into my face
And hear into my heart
Hesitation could re-arrange
The other side to your love Take hold now baby
And take what
Other lovers have not
Times is changin' will they re-arrange

The other side to your loveNo, woah, woah, woah, yeah

WooCome home

Here he is impatient one

Come home

Come home

Tell the storyCome home

Here he is

The impatient one

Come home

To claim a gloryProdigal son

Come home

Prodigal bum

Come home

Prodigal sonProdigal son

Come home

To claim a glory

Prodigal son

Come homeProdigal bum

Here he comes

Yeah, that prodigal son

Ooh, he's the one

To tell his storyC'mon to tell his story

C'mon to tell his story

C'mon to claim his glory

Prodigal son
