

No Future Part Three: Escape from No Future

Titus Andronicus

Everything makes me nervous
And nothing feels good for no reason
Waking up, it's rarely worth it
The same dark dread every morningSenior year here in Mahwah
A new world just around the corner
Leave me behind, let me stagnate
In a fortress of solitudeSmoking's been okay so far
But I need something that works faster
So all I want for Christmas
Is no feelings, no feelings now and never againThere is a faceplate all brown and red that stretches across my mouth
It's worn for protection, nobody gets in and nobody gets out
I used to look myself in the mirror at the end of every day
But I took the one thing that made me beautiful and I threw it awayI was a river, I was a tall tree, I was a volcano
But now I'm asleep on top of a mountain, I've been covered in snow
Yes, I have surrendered what made me human and all that I thought was true
And now there's a robot that lives in my brain and he tells me what to doAnd I can do nothing without his permission, that wasn't part of the plan
So now in Rock Ridge pharmacy I will be waiting for my man
But there is another down in a dungeon who never gave up the fight
And he'll be forever screaming, sometimes I hear him say, on a quiet night, he says"You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser now"You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loserYou will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loserYou will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loserYou will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loserYou will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loserYou will always be a loser

You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser
You will always be a loser now And that's okay
