Look at Me Now

Reveille

He can't avoid conflict, he's lost 'cause he's incomplete
He's in between, somewhere in between
In between the sleepless shadows
Battling to break the love that's guaranteed
To make you bleed thicker than bloodHe don't want it, but craves what he can't escape
He's staring straight through his fate and now he's face to face
You wanna fall down, well this could make your dreams come true
Because the devil was an angel tooLook at me now, making the same mistakes I said
I'd never make again but now I'm back in the same place
Look at me now, somebody stole my soul
I feel the breaks go and I'm spinning out of controlI said, look at me now, making the same mistakes I said
I'd never make again but now I'm back in the same place
Look at me now, somebody stole my soul
I feel the breaks go and I'm spinning out of controlCome step into a brave new world, not even worth it
Decent comes quick and now he's anything but perfect
And still he worships that fundamental bullshit talk
'The path you carve yourself is the path to walkNow walk alone, play it to the bone, don't make it right
Just because he got his sickness from that venomous bite
We wanna fall down, well this could make our dreams come true
Because the devil was an angel tooLook at me now, making the same mistakes I said
I'd never make again but now I'm back in the same place
Look at me now, somebody stole my soul
I feel the breaks go and I'm spinning out of controlI say, look at me now, making the same mistakes I said
I'd never make again but now I'm back in the same place
Look at me now, somebody stole my soul
I feel the breaks go and I'm spinning out of controlIt's gonna be alright, everything's okay
Mother's tears will fall and wash it all away
It's gonna be alright, everything's okay
Mother's tears will fall and wash it all awayIt's gonna be alright, everything's okay
Mother's tears will fall and wash it all away
It's gonna be alright, everything's okay
Mother's tears will fall and wash it all awaySuck, suck it, suck, suck it up
Suck, suck it, suck, suck it up
Suck, suck it, suck, suck it up
Suck, suck it upThe devil was an angel tooLook at me now, making the same mistakes I said
I'd never make again but now I'm back in the same place
Look at me now, somebody stole my soul
I feel the breaks go and I'm spinning out of controlI say, look at me now, making the same mistakes I said
I'd never make again but now I'm back in the same place

Look at me now, somebody stole my soul
I feel the breaks go and I'm spinning out of controlYeah, look at me now
Somebody stole my soul
