California

Bailey Laine

You were 18 and you were older than me
And you said you'd love me forever
Well, I was sick being stuck in this small town
I've just enough money to get out
So, let's get out

Baby, I've been thinking about you lately
I was thinking of, maybe, we could go to California
Well, I hear it's so beautiful in late December
We could run away and we'll remember what's back home
We'll be alone

Long nights,
Listening to our moms and dads can't get it right
Kiss you and I promise you that we'll never fight
Like they do, I love you
So, late one night,
I'll pack up my bags and we'll be real quiet
Hoping no one sees us, we'll get away
So far away

Baby, I've been thinking about you lately
I was thinking of, maybe, we could go to California
Well, I hear it's so beautiful in late December
We could run away and we'll remember what's back home
We'll be alone

So, I'll break my light pink piggy bank
And I'll save up all the money that I don't make
And we'll wake up in California
Cause you were 18 and you were older than me
And you said you'd love me forever
