

Tear Your Hate Apart

Monks of Mellonwah

I was lying there that night
When your daddy fell and died
Everybody wept and cried

You just kept your hands with mineChorusNice to know I failed you again

I'm sinking, stumbling I don't know the way
Nice to know you'll all be OK

My only question

What remains of me?Bless you perfect child

Your eyes brighten all our days and nightsChorusNice to know I failed you again

I'm sinking, stumbling I don't know the way
Nice to know you'll all be OK

My only question

What remains of me?

Nice to know its all been a game that we keep on losing

Still i'll start again

Now I see my road has an end

With my painted army, yeah we'll march away
