

O'Desire

Beverly Jo Scott

O' desire by Beverly Jo Scott
In front of me i can see your face and then your body fades into view I can feel my senses warming into place and my mind is changing attitude My breath is coming harder in my breast and my eyelids are feeling heavy my lips are swelling and i feel my heart beating in them that's when i'm at my best Overwhelming desire overwhelming fire tell your passionate liar what to do
I have been thinking about you for such a long time
I have been dreaming about you forever
I imagine, i imagine and the chills run down my spine
I can smell your silver and your leather
