

Up Against The Wall

'n Sync

It's over, look out below
And I'm wasted, I still taste it
Yeah, it's so hard to let go
So breathe in now and breathe it out
The forecast, a car crash
It's looking like another breakdown, rebound
This could be my last goodbye
You crossed your heart, I hope to die
And I can't deny your eyes
You know, I tried to read between the lines
I saw a warning sign
And then you threw me up against the wall
Who said that it's better to have loved and lost?
I wish that I had never loved at all
No rewinds, no second times
And I won't break, I won't waste
Everything you left behind
Don't follow, just let it go
But the weather's been better
Don't let it be another breakdown, rebound
This could be my last goodbye
You crossed your heart, I hope to die
And I can't deny your eyes
You know, I tried to read between the lines
I saw a warning sign
And then you threw me up against the wall
Who said that it's better to have loved and lost?
I wish that I had never loved at all
All the nights I spent sitting at home
While you were out there on your own
All the nights I waited by the phone
While you were going it alone
And all your different faces
And all your different ways
Of making everything a mess
And all I'm saying is that
All your different places and
All the complications laid to rest
And I can't deny your eyes

You know I try to read between the lines
I saw a warning sign
And then you threw me up against the wall
Who said that it's better to have loved and lost?
I wish that I had never loved
And I can't deny your eyes
You know, I try to read between the lines
I saw a warning sign
And then you threw me up against the wall
Who said that it's better to have loved and lost?
I wish that I had never loved at all
Never loved at all
