The Reason Why

Gulliver

The reason why I'm not with you I thought you didn't want to be with me I stayed up all last night Tryin' to figure why you slammed the door on me

And I thought of all the things I might have done last night
Some clumsy thing I didn't do or say just right I worried myself right into a brand new day My eyes are hard with tears and I just can't think straight

Tell me the reason why you won't explain
and I can't guess
Didn't I touch you right or should I talk a little less?
Please tell me the reason
please tell me the reason why

The reason why I'm feelin' bad I'm thinking that you may be leavin' me Oh, I spent a lonely night in the kitchen Tryin' to fight all the tears in me

I'm still at the table as the day unfolds
With a half a cup of coffee that by now is cold
The silence that you answered
I don't understand
You know I try to read your face
You know I canâ€™t

Tell me the reason why you won't explain
and I can't guess

or should I talk a little less?
Please tell me the reason
