All the Same

Sick Puppies

I don't mind where you come from As long as you come to me But I don't like illusions I can't see them clearly I don't care, no, I wouldn't dare To fix the twist in you You've shown me eventually What you'll doI don't mind, I don't care As long as you're hereGo ahead, tell me you'll leave again You'll just come back running Holding your scarred heart in hand It's all the sameAnd I'll take you for who you are If you take me for everything And do it all over again It's all the sameHours slide and days go by Till you decide to come And in between, it always seems too long For certainBut I have the skill Yeah. I have the will To breath you in while I can However long you stay is all that I amI don't mind, I don't care As long as you're hereGo ahead, tell me you'll leave again You'll just come back running Holding your scarred heart in hand It's all the sameAnd I'll take you for who you are If you take me for everything And do it all over again It's always the sameWrong or right, black or white If I close my eyes, it's all the same In my life, the compromise I'll close my eyes, it's all the sameGo ahead, say it, you're leaving You'll just come back running Holding your scarred heart in hand It's all the sameAnd I'll take you for who you are now If you take me for everything And do it all over again
