Safe Place

Brianna Carpenter

Another day inside my world
I'm married to you and this road
The road that never lets me sleep
There's no way to escape these demons I am forced to keepAnd then I find you here
Through your eyes every thing's clear
And I'm home inside your arms
But I'm alone for nowI mean the best with what I say
It doesn't always sound that way
I never learned to work things out
'Cuz in my family all we ever seemed to do is shoutAnd then I find you here
Through your eyes every thing's clear
And I'm home inside your arms
But I'm alone for now, alone for nowAnd I try to sleep
The drugs I take are killing me
I think of you to ease my pain, but you're so far
And now its time to say goodbye
I love you baby, please don't cryAnd then I find you here
Through your eyes every thing's clear
And I'm home inside your arms
But I'm alone for now, alone for now
