

Die Dead Enough

Megadeth

It's twilight and I wake up hot
My body's soaked in a cold, cold sweat
I reenact the lurid scenes
And clawed engravings in my head Oh, I can't punch hard enough
I can't kick high enough
I can't shoot straight enough
I can't hold on enough
Oh, I can't stay down enough
I can't take pain enough
I can't bleed fast enough
I can't die dead enough The air is thick, but the oxygen's thin
My heart is beating like a drum
And ice is flowing through my veins
Explosives on my lips and in my lungs Oh, I can't punch hard enough
I can't kick high enough
I can't shoot straight enough
I can't hold on enough
Oh, I can't stay down enough
I can't take pain enough
I can't bleed fast enough
I can't die dead enough I don't know what I'm running from?
And I don't know where I'm running to?
There's something deep and strange inside of me I see I don't know what I'm running from?
And I don't know where I'm running to?
Something's compelling me to run into the dark And now I am more driven than before
And now I live just to settle score
And now I feel the nearness of your breath
Now I introduce you to your death I, I am more driven than before
I, I live just to settle score
I, I feel the nearness of your breath
I, I introduce you to your death I can't punch hard enough
I can't kick high enough
I can't hold on enough I can't stay down enough
I can't take pain enough
I can't bleed fast enough
I can't die dead enough
