

Do You Know

Kill Your Idols

(1st verse) The sun don't shine on me no more. Better times thrown out the door. So what the fuck am I waiting for. You're not there for me, that's for sure. (Chorus) Do you know how much I care? How can you be so unaware? (2nd verse) It's your life, but it's my hell. Where I stand now, I can't tell. I've peeled off my protective shell. My emotions never served me well. (chorus) Do you know how much I care? How can you be so unaware? (3rd verse) I can't believe I fell again. I can tell that you won't bend. I hate to tell you, you're not my friend. So hat's off to you, this is the end.to blame
