

Getting old

Whitehouse

WhitehouseGetting OldIf they took away the fears
And allowed us what we have lived
So that we could face our present
For our past was not too pleasant
Now there's little more that we can giveAnd after having done it all
As everyone must do for sure
We could find a few things free
And the pensioners i.d. would open every doorMaybe then getting old
Would be more reasonable
A milder thing, a longer lasting fling
Maybe then getting old
Would be a smooth gentle progress
A finishing bliss, an ending with a kissIf we all lived among friends
Who at least once in a while
Would just pass some words around
And would let us make some sound
Not make us look senileMaybe then getting old
Would be more reasonable
A milder thing, a longer lasting fling
Maybe then getting old
Would be a smooth gentle progress
A finishing bliss, an ending with a kiss
