

Suffer In Truth (demo)

Meshuggah

Tortured soul ripping skin into ashes
Blind by pain, deaf by lies
Smell of freedom violently cuts forgiveness
Power to a being never dies Suffer in truth's narrow passage saw
Weak solutions stabbed to not know
The smile of obliterations face Penetrating through the void of life
A dance with the dead
Buried in oblivion stolen from the mind
Constant starving never fed Contaminated life is fading laughing in my face
Suffer in deception manipulated not to feel
Slain beliefs abandoned dreams a life of misery Suffer in truth
Suffer in truth The wounds of a soul in pain a mirror of life
Dreams all in vain life will always be sealed I see unseen
I feel unseen Suffer in truth
Suffer
Suffer in truth
