

Liar Liar (Feat. Blondfire)

Avicii

Liar, liar!
Why on earth won't tell the truth?
Liar, liar!
Can't nobody see the lie of you? Follow you to dust
Leaving footprints on the clouds as we're walking home
Iron hearts all turn to rust
By tears and the days on a diamond street Is this apocalypse?
Chasing shadows, living dreams that don't exist
Anymore...
We need to find a way... Well, we are who we are, and we're all going under
When the past with the last and will last until under Liar, liar!
Why on earth won't tell the truth?
Liar, liar!
Can't nobody see the lie of you? Wall closing in your head
Counting heartbeats 'til the feeling's good and gone
On a dark path there to watch
A sad greed pouring rain over everything You'll think it's apocalypse
With the whispers of the sand and the sun eclipsed
Forever more
We need to find a way... Well, we are who we are, and we're all going under
When the past with the last and will last until under Liar, liar!
Why on earth won't tell the truth?
Liar, liar!
Can't nobody see the lie of you? They keep talking but I can't hear them, no
I just sit there and watch them come and go
There might be something underneath it all
But at least I'll find, we'll all find out in the end
But at least I'll find, we'll all find out in the end
