

You Make Me

Lori Michaels

Ya. Come on. Let me tell ya somethin:

You make me so so happy

You make me smile

You make me just a little bit crazy

You make me wildWhen we met we played it oh so cool (cool) there was no foolin (nah)

You and me we knew that we could be (what?) a little somethin (ya)

I could see that there was just that sparkle in each others eyes (uh huh)

Could it be that we were meant to be? (ya) thats a possibility

And now I wonder..if you know I like ya

Cause I am undera spell of pure desire

Dont wanna love yaor rush to get inside ya

(but) I cant control the way that. You make me so so happy You make me smile

You make me just a little bit crazy You make me wildYou take a step-I watch you as you move (I want to , I want to)

I just cant help to want you more and more cause we could be (ya)-a little more than somethingDo ya see that theres a certain way I feel I cant disguise (you feel it?)

Is it me? Do you believe in fate (I do) and lovers destiny?And now I wonder..if you know I like ya

Cause I am undera spell of pure desire

Dont wanna love yaor rush to get inside ya

(but) I cant control the way that. You make me so so happy

You make me smile

You make me just a little bit crazy

You make me wild

So, whats it gonna be? You and me? (you) Ya.(you) thats rightcause its like this (YOU):You make me so so happy

You make me smile (you make me smile)

You make me just a little bit crazy (keep drivin me crazycrazy..crazy)

You make me wild

You make me so so happy (so very happy, baby)

You make me smile (and I love your smile)

You make me just a little bit crazy (crazy.crazywild)

You make me wild
