

Drugs

Eden

Cos i had the best of the worst sides
And i had these lungs
And i had too many flash fires
That i just let them burn Till my chest is on fire
And my head just won't die
I guess im lying cos i wanna
I guess im lying cos i dont
Cos i just feel so tired
Like its move or slowly die
You ain't you when youre like this
This ain't you and you know it
But ain't that just the point
You dont know
How to let go
Who said this must be all or nothing
But im
Still caught below
And ill never let you know
No i can't tell you nothing Cos im a fucking mess sometimes
But still i could always be
Whatever you wanted
But not what you needed
Especially when you been needing me
Cos im a fucking mess sometimes
And ill say what i dont mean
Just cos i wanted
Or maybe i need it
Swear lyings the only rush i need Cos all i needed was some words to say
That all these feelings dont mean shit to me
Cos its all just chemicals anyway
Anyway
And i got way to many routes to take
To make this all just go away
And find another heart to break
So heartless with the words i say
Just saying what im supposed to say
Cos i had nothing for you
I can't love when i can't even love myself
Things i would rather be thoughts at the back of my head but im addicted to hurting

And i got these lungs
And I spent too many late nights
Thinking a hole in the earthTill the sky is on fire
And my head still won't die
I guess im lying cos i want to
I guess im lying cos i dont
Cos i just feel so tired
Like i need something to come alive
She said you ain't you when youre like this
This ain't you what you done?
And i said thats the pointYou dont know how to let go
Who said this must be all or nothing
But im still caught bellow
And ill never let you know
No i can't tell you nothingCos im a fucking mess sometimes
But still i could always be
Whatever you wanted
But not what you needed
Especially when you been needing me
Cos im a fucking mess inside
And ill say what i dont mean
Just cos i wanted
Or maybe i need it
Swear lyings the only rush i need
