

Hello Shitty

Bayside

It seems that you're keeping me down
And it just seems pointless to work this thing out
And what's holding me back?
A lifelong friendship's not worth this
I'll hide this one deep underground Convenience can comfort you now
But the words that you said, you can never take back
And I'm warning you now
When you realize you made a mistake
I'll be sure to kick you while you're down I gave you this gift
(I gave you this gift)
Now I'm here alone and I'll pay for it
Our light's almost out
(Our light's almost out)
But I'll smile again the day that you figure out I was all that you had
